+The Call to Worship (+ indicates to stand as you are able)

Rev. Bo Myers

Leader: As members of Christ’s tree of life,

All: we are connected, in love, to God.

Leader: As members of Christ’s tree of life,

All: we are connected, in love, to one another.

Leader: As members of Christ’s tree of life,

All: we strengthen our connection through worship.

+The Processional Hymn ~ 384

BEECHER

"Love Divine, All Loves Excelling"

*The Cross leads the procession, symbolic of the centrality in worship of Jesus Christ, the Living Word and Savior of humankind.
The acolytes light the two candles on the altar, which are symbolic of the dual nature of Jesus Christ, both human and divine.*

+The Opening Prayer

Rev. Myers

Loving God, send your Spirit among us now.

Bind us to you in love this day,

that we may worship in unity and friendship.

Bind us to you in love this hour,

that we may be strengthened to bring abundant love to your world.

In love and gratitude, we pray. Amen.

The Act of Praise

Madison Street Choir; April Yates, Guest Tarpley Director

“Now Sing We Joyfully Unto God”
(Gordon Young)

Now sing we joyfully unto God, We sing so joyfully unto God.
Now sing we happily, happily unto God, We sing to God!

+The Benediction

Rev. Myers

+The Postlude

Madison Street Brass

"La Majeste"

(George Philipp Telemann)

At the end of the service, the light carried out into the world is a sign that Jesus Christ is for all people everywhere, and that Christ goes with his people into the world who serve as his living body. As we follow the acolytes out, we do so as those commissioned to carry the light of Christ.

The flowers on the altar are given to the glory of God by Anne and Jerry Clark.

Senior Recognition Sunday May 12 during Sunday Morning Worship

If you have a senior in your family who is graduating from high school in 2024, we want to celebrate this great achievement! Please follow the link to register your senior for our Senior Recognition Sunday. During the service on May 12, we will call up the seniors to receive a gift from Madison Street UMC and pray over them and for their next steps in life.

As their community of faith, we are proud of their hard work and look forward to recognizing this accomplishment in worship on May 12. If your graduate cannot attend on May 12, we still want to recognize them. Please follow the link and answer the questions in the registration so we can make sure to recognize all of our High School Graduates!
